acting business in the city Wednesday, returning home this morning.

Jack Sullivan went down to Omaha last Monday to spend a few days visiting fistic and business friends in the metropolis.

W. H. Jones of Omaha, division freight and passenger agent of the Northwestern railroad, was in the city Tuesday on business.

J. J. Thomas returned last Saturday night from Excelsior Springs, Mo., where he had been recuperating for the past six weeks.

Jack and Will Dwyer of Butte, Mont., arrived in the city this morning to spend a few days with their mother, Mrs. Tim Dwyer, who has been seriously ill.

John A. Golden arrived in the city Wednesday on business and a visit with relatives and friends. John is connected with a fire insurance company at Omaha and is now residing in that city.

On account of an error in dates the lecture to have been given by Father Nugent at the K. C. opera house on the evening of January 12, has been postponed to a later date, when due notice will be given.

Mrs. O. O. Snyder and son, Dee, returned last Friday from Aurelia, Iowa, where they had been visiting relatives for a couple of weeks. While away they also visited Mr. Snyder's mother at Sioux City.

Tom McKenzie, one of the pioneers of Rock Falls township, was a pleasant caller at these headquarters last Wednesday and ordered this household necessity sent to his address for the ensuing year.

John Moler was up from Wayne the first of the week looking after his farm lands in this section. John says that Wayne is a great town, but that no place looks better to him than the Emerald Tinted city.

Julius Cronin, Walter Campbell, Will Barnard, Rhody Ryan, Mat Kane and Con Keyes, who are attending Creighton College, and who spent the holidays at home, returned to their school duties at Omaha last Friday and Saturday mornings.

A. C. McCauley, one of Atkinson's hustling real estate dealers, transacted business in the city last Wednesday. Mr. McCauley is of the opinion that the coming year will be one of the banner years for Holt county real estate men.

Arthur Ryan returned Wednesday evening from a few days' visit with his parents at St. Joe, Mo. Arthur says that they are having very foggy wet weather in that section and he was glad to get back to old Holt with its ideal summer weather.

E. L. May, who with his father ran the old Potter hotel in this city some twenty years ago, is figuring upon erecting a $100,000 hotel in Norfolk, providing he can induce the citizens of that city to take some stock in the enterprise.

Hugh James, the eighteen-month old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Boyle, died last Wednesday afternoon, after a few days' illness, of pneumonia. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning from the Catholic church. The many friends of the grief-stricken parents tender their sympathy in their hour of trouble.

The county board were in session the first of the week cleaning up the business for the old year. All the county officers who were given an extension of one year in office, by an act of the legislature last winter, gave new bonds and the same were approved by the board. They adjourned Wednesday night and will meet in regular session next Tuesday, when a chairman will be elected and the various committees appointed for the ensuing year.

I. N. Boggs sold his pool and billiard hall last week to P. R. Waddington, who has been farming upon the old Hopkins farm the past three years. Mr. Waddington is having a sale of his personal property and will take possession of the billiard hall the twentieth of this month. Mr. Boggs made a great financial success of the business and the only reason he was induced to dispose of it was the fact that he found it too confining for him and was forced to abandon the business on account of his health. The Frontier wishes Mr. Waddington success.

We Sell Johnson's Chocolates

YOU know them by test and taste. When you offer a box of these deliciously flavored Bon-Bons to anyone—that best girl of yours, for instance—she will realize at once that quality is in every morsel.
